

Fairfield
UNIVERSITY

The Initiative for Policy Dialogue and Fairfield University jointly present:

Iraq's Legacy: Sanctions and Beyond

With Hans-Christof von Sponeck and Joy Gordon

September 24

SIPA building, room 1510

6 PM

Hans-C. von Sponeck received his education in Germany, the UK and the US, holds a PhD h.c. (University of Marburg), and served in the United Nations for 32 years. His assignments included head of mission in Botswana, Pakistan and India; UNDP Director, European Office in Geneva; and Coordinator for Iraq at rank of UN Assistant Secretary General. He is currently teaching at the University of Marburg.

Joy Gordon is the author of Invisible War: The United States and the Iraq Sanctions (Harvard University Press, 2010), listed by Foreign Policy as one of the best books published in 2010. She has also published in Le Monde Diplomatique, Ethics and International Affairs, Global Governance, Arab Studies Quarterly, and the Chicago Journal of International Law. She teaches in the Philosophy Department at Fairfield University. Her work can be found at www.invisiblewar.net.

Space is limited for this event and seating will be available on a first come, first serve basis.